

Radcliffe on Trent WEA Spring 2017

Half-Term Lecture

'The White Rose'; the students' resistance in Germany 1942-45. Presented by Ulfrich Sielken.

Wednesday 15 February 7.30pm Methodist Church, Shelford Road, Radcliffe-on-Trent. Admission £3.00 including refreshments.

Spring Courses

Let's read more Latin

9 weeks, Tuesday evenings beginning 10 January, £52.00. Led by Maureen Lillie, covering a range of authors and suitable for those with prior knowledge of the language.

Native American Indians and the settlement of the west

9 weeks, Wednesday mornings beginning 11 January, £52.00. Led by Ann Parker; discussing the fate of Indians in the 19th and early 20th centuries.

Philosophy and Wisdom

7 weeks, Wednesday evenings beginning 25 January, £53.90. Led by Bettina Lange; covering Socrates, Plato and Aristotle, Buddhism and modern thought.

Three sculptors

3 weeks, Wednesday evenings beginning 3 May, £38.50. Led by Susan Roberts; with a guided visit to the Yorkshire Sculpture Park on a Saturday in May as an integral part of the course but with an extra cost to be advised later.

All the above courses will take place at the Grange Community Centre, Vicarage Lane, Radcliffe-on-Trent, NG12 2FB.

For details on any course, or to enrol, please contact WEA Branch Secretary on 0115 933 2922. Online enrolment via; www.wea.org.uk