

IDCD
International
Dawn Chorus Day

Rushcliffe

On Sunday 3rd May 2015

Rise early and join many others all around the world in celebrating the dawn chorus, nature's daily miracle at

Rushcliffe Country Park

Meet 5am at the Visitor Centre

In celebration of International Dawn Chorus Day join your Ranger for gentle walk of around 1.5 miles to enjoy the beauty of nature's daily free concert

There is no charge for this event but parking is a £1 donation
Please be aware this is an informal event - not a lecture on birdsong -
Your Ranger will (attempt to) identify a few common species on the walk – feel free to correct him or help him out!

To book a place or for more information:
enquire at the Ranger's Office: 0115 921 5865
or email: countrypark@rushcliffe.gov.uk

Organised by Birmingham &
Black Country

For more information on International Dawn Chorus Day and events world-wide visit www.IDCD.info IDCD is organised by The Wildlife Trust for Birmingham and the Black Country. For more information about the Trust and its work, please visit www.bbowlife.org.uk
Registered in England No. 1650938, Charity No. 513615