

Woollen Woods

Rushcliffe Country Park 15 - 24 May 2015
Mere Way Ruddington Nottingham

Love to knit, crochet or sew?

Help make a Woollen Wood to celebrate Voluntary Arts Week

Knitted, crocheted or felt creations are needed for a giant outdoor art display being created in the sensory garden at Rushcliffe Country Park in Ruddington - one of only five Woollen Woods in the whole country

For inspiration, submission forms to accompany your creations and links to free patterns visit www.voluntaryartsweek.org/nottinghamshire-woollen-wood

Woolley creations should be taken to the rangers office at the park or to Ruddington Framework Knitters Museum

Contributions should be inspired by THE BIRDS AND THE TREES especially oak trees, acorns and our signature flower the Cherry Blossom

New to knitting and need some expert know-how?

Craft Day
Thursday 16 April 11am - 4pm
Framework Knitters Museum,
Chapel Street, Ruddington

Activities available for all ages and abilities, allowing everyone to create an item to be displayed in the Woollen Wood.
Patterns available for experienced knitters whilst the museum's hand-knitting machines will enable everyone else to create stunning woollen flowers. Felt activities will also be available for smaller children.

Have-a-go Workshops
Sunday 17 and 24 May 10am - 3pm
Education Centre, Rushcliffe Country Park

Nicki Merrell will be leading drop in sessions in finger knitting, french knitting and simple patterns. Suitable for all ages.
