

Get Involved

What do you think about local health services? Why not get involved and tell us what you think?

As the local NHS, it's really important that all health services reflect the needs of everyone living in Rushcliffe. Here at Rushcliffe CCG, we're really keen to hear your feedback and comments on local health services – whether it's good or bad.

Visit our website for more information on how to get involved with our Practices Patient Participation Groups or virtually via our Health Network.

Signing up to our health network also ensures you receive our monthly e-bulletin providing you with our news, consultations, upcoming events, newsletters and reports.

Member of NHS Rushcliffe CCG Active Group—April 2016

About Us

NHS Rushcliffe CCG is responsible for commissioning hospital, community and mental health services for the population of Rushcliffe .

NHS Rushcliffe CCG is a membership organisation consisting of 12 GP practices in the area supported by a small management team and led by the Governing Body. We work closely with the district and county councils and other agencies to develop and deliver strategies that improve the health and wellbeing of the local population.

Annual General Meeting (AGM) FAQ's

When is it?

Wednesday 21 September.
Refreshments will be available from 5pm. The AGM will officially start at 6pm and finish at 7.00pm. The venue is Rushcliffe Council Chamber, Rushcliffe Civic Centre, Pavilion Road

Why do we hold an AGM?

The purpose of the AGM is for the CCG, stakeholders, partners and local people to come together and hear about the CCG's key achievements and healthcare plans for the future. The AGM also enables you to understand more about the CCG and take part in active discussions.

Who is allowed to attend?

Anyone can attend the AGM.

How accessible is the AGM?

The venue is fully accessible. A hearing loop system is available

Why is it important I attend?

NHS Rushcliffe CCG is committed to involving patients and the public directly in the development of our plans; encouraging and supporting active participation in improving services; and promoting openness and transparency both in the way we work and in information we provide about the work we do

Can I contribute to the AGM?

Yes there will be opportunities to ask questions within the format of the AGM.

For those that can't be there in person, there will be a chance to contribute via our Twitter or Facebook page on the day of the AGM. We may not be able to directly respond to all comments, but they will be recorded as part of the event.

How can I request more information about the AGM?

For more information about the AGM please contact mail@rushcliffeccg.nhs.uk
