Updated 31 March 2020

In response to Government guidelines the Parish Council has put the following measures in place for the foreseeable future (subject to change).

- The Grange and Grange Hall Community Buildings are closed to the public including the Parish Council Office
- The village public toilets are closed
- The Cemetery and Grange Grounds will remain open
- Rockley Memorial Park and all Play Areas are closed
- All planned events and Council meetings for March, April and May are cancelled or will be deferred to a later date including the Annual Parish Meeting
- Staff at the Parish Council are still contactable by phone or email for continuity of business operations (the Ansa phone will be checked on a regular basis)

Please be aware of who lives on your road and support the vulnerable and elderly during this time, we know that this is already happening in many areas and we ask that local groups and organisations keep communication open with your members. We thank the community for pulling together. Follow the guidelines and keep safe!
